

Armchair Treasure Hunt

1996 Christmas Challenge

In the middle of December real treasure will be buried less than an hour from Logica's central London offices. Find it and the treasure and monetary prizes (£100+ from the Logica Sports and Social Club) could be yours.

Recruit your team now. Promise them a Christmas to remember. An opportunity for sustained intellectual torture, or pleasure. Starting date around the middle of December, closing date around the second week in January.
