

ATH Muddy Boots Award 2019

As announced in the Newsletter, the ATH 2019 muddy boots award goes to England goalkeeper Gordon Banks.

"Nobody notices the mud when they're close to the goal."

In other recent news, the ATH entertainment team reports that several skilled investigative squads have volunteered to look into the theft of the Setters' safe deposit box including "ATHEXIT". It is rumoured that ATHEXIT may no longer be in the box as was previously believed. It's possible the perpetrators of the theft may have hidden it somewhere en route to their concealment of the box. Have all possible paths yielded nothing else when you examine and recalculate? The Setters would very much welcome any news of both the box and ATHEXIT.
