That feeling
when you are
whiling away
the hours
waiting for the
ATH to arrive...
